Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001170

Dear Brooke D. Youngwirth (Mackey Butts & Whalen):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on March 30, 2023, in which you seek a complete copy of the investigative file for SK Electric, Case No. 03-CA-295107. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on March 30, 2023. In a phone call on April 3, 2023, you told a member of my staff that you would exclude the publicly available records from your request as you already had them as counsel for the Charged Party.

Your request for remaining records is denied. After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have determined that the records responsive to your request are part of the investigative file in an open case before the Agency and are exempt from disclosure pursuant to FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with a pending enforcement proceeding. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the requested case, the investigatory records in the case file are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Please note that the Exemption 7(A) protection is "temporal in nature." Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep't of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/03-CA-295107>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

No records were produced therefore there are no charges for this request.

You may contact Teresita Sanabria, the FOIA Specialist, who processed your request, at (202) 273-4000 or by email at teresita.sanabria@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Specialist, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times.
